

Some New DISHES Are in Town

53 E Union St, Pasadena, CA 91103 • (626) 795-5546
www.dishbistroandbar.com

PEOPLE —MAKING A DIFFERENCE—

HILLSIDES LAUNCHES VOLUNTEER SUPPORT GROUP

Hillside's hosted the H100 inaugural Farm to Table event at the Flintridge Riding Club to launch a new volunteer support group. H100, a group whose dedication and volunteer efforts will be the new generation of support for the Pasadena charity, will further build awareness for Hillside's for the next 100 years. H100 members will be given opportunities to volunteer throughout the year directly with the children of Hillside's through programs such as the Adopt-A-Family program during the holidays, the Spring Fling and the library reading program.

Hillside's board members Scott Steuber, April Danz, Karen Huang, Sarah Shelton and Jeff Welch

PEOPLE —MAKING A DIFFERENCE—

RODNEY JEFFERSON 2010 DIVER "CITIES" COMMUNITY ACTIVIST OF THE YEAR

Rodney Jefferson, owner and director of the "A" Game Fundamental Basketball Clinic in Monrovia, was selected by congresswoman Judy Chu to receive the 2010 Diver "cities" Community Activist of the Year Award. In addition to his increasingly popular summer basketball clinic, Rodney is a motivational speaker and intercultural mediator with an impressive record of community outreach services includes acting as liaison between city officials and at-risk youth to reduce gang violence. He has also worked with city officials and local businesses to develop strategies to provide job training and increase employment opportunities for youth.

Congresswoman Judy Chu with "A" Game Fundamental Basketball Clinic owner and director Rodney Jefferson.